How to use YPS 4 YPS?

Asian Youth
Peace Network

Youth Peace Security for Young Public Servants

AYPN's first 3 e-modules are no-cost services for elected and appointed young public servants, parliamentarians, bureaucrats, youth councils and ministries, and the like, across the 10 ASEAN member states who want to learn more about the principles and best practices of Youth, Peace, Security can be applied in their own contexts. It includes practical tools for youth leaders to facilitate meaningful youth engagement with young peacebuilders on the ground.

Get in touch with the Secretariat.

You may schedule a group orientation where we can go over the first module together. You may also email youth@peacenetWORK.asia for consultations on more localized or thematic modules of your choice.

Register on the e-platform.

- 1. Create an account. It's a very easy process - simply input your basic information , and you're good to go!
- 2. Proceed to Module 1. There are arrows at the bottom of each slide, so that you can go backward or forward.
- 3. Submit your Entry. After answering all the exercises, just hit the SUBMIT button and you're on for the Module 2/3!

Set 15 minutes of your time.

We created bite-size learning in respect to your busy schedules. Each e-learning module only takes an average of 15 minutes to read and answer. Let's learn together, the ASEAN Way!

Asian Youth
Peace Network

The modules are currently being tested by: ASEAN Parliamentarians for Human Rights, Committee for ASEAN Youth Cooperation, National Society of Parliamentarians, Sangguniang Kabataan, Malaysian Youth Parliament, Indonesia Youth Council, among others.
